Achievement Objectives

Students will demonstrate their ability, against the background of French culture to:

- Comprehend detail and summarise meaning in spoken and written French.
- Initiate and maintain a conversation that may have some unpredictable content.
- Write extended passages, presenting ideas and information logically and demonstrating their expanding knowledge of French vocabulary and language features.

Course of Study

By the end of this course students should have an understanding of and ability to use all the communication functions up to the end of Level 7 French in the New Zealand Curriculum.

A list of the Level 2 NCEA vocabulary and grammar structures is available in the NCEA Level 2 Renash guide.

The Content

The themes studied this year are:

- La mode et l'image
- La musique
- Le sport
- La santé et le bien-être
- Les vacances
- La famille et les relations personnelles

The main resources will be provided in class during the course of each topic. Other resources, including online resources, will be used as appropriate. The two internal assessments (written and spoken presentation portfolios) will be based on these resources.

Study Hints for Level 2 French

- Keep your folder (or digital notes) well-organised (using subject dividers) and up to date.
- Complete all writing tasks/assignments on time and file these in your Writing Portfolio folder on One Note.
- Learn vocabulary, structures, and grammar rules regularly. Make study cards and notes throughout the course and refer to them regularly. You will usually have a weekly vocabulary test, most often administered through Education Perfect.
- Be methodical and conscientious about learning vocabulary and grammar structures (especially Level 7).
- Regularly work on improving your spoken language. Practise conversations in and out of class. Use spoken French as much as possible!

Level 2 French Curriculum Level Seven Proficiency Descriptor

Students can use language variably and effectively to express and justify their own ideas and opinions and support or challenge those of others. They are able to use and identify the linguistic and cultural forms that guide interpretation and enable them to respond critically to texts.

Spoken Presentation (2.2)

- You will give a spoken presentation in French that communicates information, ideas and opinions
- If you do not achieve this standard, you may be given a second assessment opportunity on a different topic.
- You will be allowed to refer to cue cards for this assessment, but you must not just “read” from the cards. You should speak for between two and three minutes.
- You will create a folder in the Year 12 French OneNote page to store your recording. It is your responsibility to manage this and to ensure that on completion of your recording you ask your teacher for feedback.

Writing Portfolio (2.5)

- Your writing portfolio is to be compiled during the year and will show that you are able to write a variety of text types.
- You will submit your final selection of at least 2 texts (totalling a minimum of 400 words) by the end of Week 9, Term 3.
- You will create a page in your French OneNote Notebook to store your texts. It is your responsibility to manage this and to ensure that on completion of each text you ask your teacher for feedback.

The External Achievement Standards will be assessed in the NZQA examination in November/December.

Topic Tests and the end of year school examinations will serve as formative tests to check on student progress and to identify learning needs. There will also be regular testing of vocabulary and grammar.

Signing Off

After each assessment you will be able to look through your work. If you agree that the mark is accurate, you will sign the acceptance form.

Storage of Student Work

Both Achievement Standards 2.2 and 2.5 will be recorded and stored on your personal OneNote portfolio pages and the Year 11 French Class Notebook.

Course Completion Requirements

You must attend class regularly and be present at all assessments. It is essential that students who miss an NCEA Assessment follow the correct procedure.

Please refer to the Rangī Hub for information on assessment policy, authenticity, appeals etc.
