Achievement Objectives

Students will demonstrate their ability, against the background of French culture to:

- Interact flexibly in familiar social situations.
- Recognise fine detail in spoken and written text and draw inferences and conclusions from it.
- Use basic language patterns spontaneously and develop and support their points of view, using vocabulary and language features as appropriate in their writing.

Course of Study

By the end of this course students should have an understanding of and ability to use all the communication functions up to the end of Level 8 French in the New Zealand Curriculum.

A list of the Level 3 NCEA vocabulary and grammar structures is available in the NCEA Level 3 Renash guide.

The Content

Les médias

- La télévision
- Les nouvelles technologies
- Le cinéma

L'environnement

- La pollution
- L'énergie
- Protection de la planète

La société multiculturelle

- L'immigration
- L'intégration

The main resources will be provided in class during the course of each topic. Other resources, including online resources, will be used as appropriate. The two internal assessments (spoken presentation and writing portfolios) will be based on these resources.

Study Hints for Level 3 French:

- Keep your folder (or digital notes) well-organised (using subject dividers) and up-to-date.
- Complete all writing tasks/assignments on time and file these in your Writing Portfolio folder on Teams.
- Learn vocabulary, structures and grammar rules regularly. Make study cards and notes throughout the course and refer back to them regularly. You will usually have one test a fortnight. We will use the Language Perfect and in class written vocabulary assessments.
- Be methodical and conscientious about learning vocabulary and grammar structures (especially Level 8).
- Regularly work on improving your spoken language. Practise conversations in and out of class (eg on your phone, Skype etc). Use spoken French as much as possible!

Level 3 French Curriculum Level Eight Proficiency Descriptor

Students can use language variably and effectively to express and justify their own ideas and opinions and support or challenge those of others. They are able to use and identify the linguistic and cultural forms that guide interpretation and enable them to respond critically to texts.

Spoken Presentation 3.2

- You will give a spoken presentation in French that communicates a critical response to stimulus material.
- If you do not achieve this standard, you may be given a second assessment opportunity on a different topic.
- You will be allowed to refer to cue cards for this assessment, but you must not just “read” from the cards. You should speak for between three and four minutes.
- You will create a folder in the Year 13 French Team page to store your recording. It is your responsibility to manage this and to ensure that on completion of your recording you ask your teacher for feedback.

Writing Portfolio 3.5

- Your writing portfolio is to be compiled during the year and will show that you are able to write a variety of text types.
- You will submit your final selection of at least 2 texts (totalling a minimum of 500 words) by the end of Week 9, Term 3.
- You will create a page in your French OneNote Notebook to store your texts. It is your responsibility to manage this and to ensure that on completion of each text you ask your teacher for feedback.

The External Achievement Standards will be assessed in the NZQA examination in November/December.

Topic Tests and the end of year school examination will serve as formative tests to check on student progress and to identify learning needs. There will also be regular testing of vocabulary and grammar.

* Students may also have the option of doing AS91545 Version 1 3.3 Spoken Interaction (6 credits). Students should speak with their class teacher if interested in this option.

Signing Off

After each assessment you will be able to look through your work. If you agree that the mark is accurate, you will sign the acceptance form.

Storage of Student Work

Both Achievement Standards 3.2 and 3.5 will be recorded and/or stored on your personal Team pages.

Course Completion Requirements

You must attend class regularly and be present at all assessments. It is essential that students who miss an NCEA Assessment follow the correct procedure.

Please refer to Rangī Life for information on assessment policy, authenticity, appeals etc.
